

My Shadow

Jessie J

You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me

I wish we could have another minute, to finish this fairytale.
Hear your voice and get lost in it, cause all I got is broken details.
You were my world and everything in it, so how did you disappear.
I won't say this is over, you're still here.

You're my shadow, my shadow, I know you're close
You're my shadow, my shadow, everywhere I go
So I, I don't see the need to cry cause you'll never leave my life
You're my shadow, my shadow, oh

You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
No, you'll never leave me.

I won't forget, I'll just sit and reminisce.
Promise I'll keep all your secrets.
To have you back would be my only wish (cause nobody knew me like you did).
The words will come to life I've written in my diary, hide and seek but I know you'll always find me.
Count to ten and I know you will appear, appear-pear no fear

I'm here, here.

You're my shadow, my shadow, I know you're close
You're my shadow, my shadow, everywhere I go
So I, I don't see the need to cry cause you'll never leave my life.
You're my shadow, my shadow, oh, you'll never leave me.

Now your gone and I swear you won't be alone
My heart beat tapping like it's made of stone.
I won't let you down, mute the sound but I can still hear. Yeah.
And now I'm breaking, see I'm shaking but I know you're waiting. Yeah-yeah.

You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
No, you'll never leave me.
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me
You'll never leave me

[2x]

You're my shadow, my shadow, I know you're close,
You're my shadow, my shadow, everywhere I go,
So I, I don't see the need to cry cause, you'll never leave my life.
You're my shadow, my shadow, oh

You'll never leave me. No, please don't ever leave me. No, no, no, no. Oh.
