

Do You Love Her

Jessie Reyez

I should've fucked your friends
It would've been the best revenge for the fire that you started
I'm trying to heal, but it's a process
They told me I should cut my losses
But there's a stranger where my heart is

And I'm sick with feeling like I deserved better
And you're sick for everything you did to me, it was a setup
And I should Goodfella you, call me Karen, waking up to my Bere
tta
If I blow your brains out I, I can guarantee that you'll forget her
If I blow your brains out, I could kiss it better
Kiss me I'm the monster that you made, yeah you made me
Now I'm just like you so don't complain, yeah you made me
Do the things you like hoping you'd stay, OK
Kiss me I'm the monster that you made, you made me

Games, you don't want me unless I'm someone else's
You don't even know you're being selfish
You mercy me only when I'm melted
Down to my tears only when I'm helpless
That's when you get off and you can't help it
And all your bullets they feel like velvet
And I let you do it, I let you do it
I loved you too much, I let you shoot it off

And I'm sick with feeling like I deserve better
And you dead me, left my heart beatless shit on a cappella
And I should Goodfella you, call me Karen, waking up to my Bere
tta
And if I blow your brains out, I can guarantee that you'll forg et her
If I blow your brains out, I could kiss it better
Kiss me I'm the monster that you made, yeah you made me
Now, I'm just like you so don't complain, yeah you made me
Do the things you like hoping you'd stay, OK
Kiss me, I'm the monster that you made, you made me
