

All the wrongs are never right.
It's all just instinct without foresight.

Drown in judgements, kill the nights.
Trust within your souls, burn so bright.

Burn so bright. (4x)

How often you told me
my main trouble was years
wrapped tightly above a bottomless pit.
Centered around your weakness
your nightmares became mine.
Running with sheppards, always the fool.
Wrapped around my weakness.

I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
You don't deserve it.
You won't deny it.

I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
and you don't deserve it
But you won't deny it.
So I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
