

Only One Too

Jewel

I am talking but you can't quite hear what I say I come closer but you push me away I should leave but I don't have the strength I can't think

Please can't you see that I am down on my knees My heart's in your hand and you squeeze
I want the whole thing but you give me a part it's time to start so I push and you pull and I don't know which way to go

Stop Me, Stop me from falling cause I can see
See where this is going
If you love me
then why do you leave me
if you need me
then I'll love you only when I am the only one, too

I just can't make you understand I want your heart but you hold up your hand you say space is what you need but you want me to be true to just you while you get to do whatever you want to

Stop Me, Stop me from falling
cause I can see
If you love me
then I'll love you only

You'll never stop it's gotta change you don't want a lover you want a world of slaves I can't resist falling into those arms those boyish charms you think I won't leave yes you're good, but not so good I can't see

Stop me,
I can see where this is going if you love me, yea!

Stop Me, Stop me from falling
