

Wonderful One

Jimmy Page

So throw it down Cleveland rain
The Queen of Love has flown again
To seek her daughter

Who must lie beside the thief
Whose golden tongue she will believe
Defies the order

Oh, that is why [that is love]
Oh, that is why
Shall we dance and never stop
Take my hand and stop the clock
From turning over

Spirit weave and spirit bend
In the move that has no end
That we must follow
Oh, oh

Show me your eyes
Oh light of the sun
Touch me with fire
My mind is undone
All life inspire
My freedom has come
I drift through desire
My wonderful one

When you do what you do
I can never, never, never
Let you go

And when you feel the way you feel
You can never, no, never let it show

Oh, show me your eyes
Oh light of the sun
Touch me with fire
My mind is undone
All life inspire
My freedom has come
I drift through desire
My wonderful one
Oh, ah, oh-ah-oh, ah, ooh.

Throw it down Cleveland Rain
The Queen of Love has flown again
To seek her daughter

[Who lies beneath the seas]
Who must lie beneath the thief
Whose golden tongue she will believe
Defies the order

That is why, That is why
That is why, That is why
