

Tomorrow's Tears

Jimmy Ruffin

I'm just a lonely man
In a dark and lonely world
Put here by the [?]
As I walk this empty land
It's so hard to understand
How a hurt can be so deep in my heart
Everywhere I turn there's so much emptiness

Now I know there is nothing left but
Tomorrow's tears are all the lie ahead
'Cause when love leaves your heart
That hope feels almost dead

Now darkness is my close friend

I've shook hands with misery many times
Since love has gone and left me
I feel so cold inside
Yes, I know
Now I know
Yes, I know that

Tomorrow's tears are all the lie ahead
'Cause when love leaves your heart
That hope feels almost dead

Who can I turn to?
Oh, where can I go?
When hope is almost dead
