Jimmy Somerville

It was only the lights and the alcohol,
But he looked like a porno star;
Some kind of Adonis.
And by my side I saw the angel sigh.
As the devil won me over, I knew
It was gonna be a wild night.
Gonna be a wild night.
He would make me feel alright.
Make me feel alright.

It was only the drugs and an altered mind.
I gave myself to the pain.
It gave him pleasure,
Oh, it gave him a pleasure.
He made me feel alright.

He made me feel alright;
Took me to paradise.
Made me feel alright;
The man made me alright.

Made me feel alright.
We were riding high to another plane.
My eyes were closed,
But my mind was open to persuasion;
Oh, such persuasion.

The blood had dried by the morning light.
I was coming down, but, hell,
We had such a wild night.
Oh, we had such a wild night.

He made me feel alright;
Made me feel alright.
You make me feel...
