

Am I

Joe Diffie

Are you wanting to say the words I can't say
Are you trying to let go of the dreams we made
Are we holding on too tight to a love not meant to last
Is it time to put our future in the past

Or am I crazy, am I losing my mind
Is it my imagination that we need to say goodbye
Are you gonna be the first to spread your wings and fly
Or am I

I never would have thought our love would come to this
We'd go our separate ways without a kiss
But we gave it all we had and did the best we could
Is it too late to make up, is this for good

Or am I crazy, am I losing my mind
Is it my imagination that we need to say goodbye
Are you gonna be the first to spread your wings and fly
Or am I

Oh which one will it be is it you or is it me
Is it walkin' out the door what we're waiting for

Or am I crazy, am I losing my mind
Is it my imagination that we need to say goodbye
Are you gonna be the first to spread your wings and fly
Or am I oh am I
