

Honeymoon Lands

Joel Faviere

Speed up, cause the air is tasty
Never had a better time
This lacy marshmallow feelin' and timing
While my hair's patiently waiting

Oops, I told you I'm feelin'
Whoops, wheelin' down this evenin'
Well the talk is awfully soothin'
Shut your eyes, just listen to me

Outside, let's have a smoke
Cool shade, and waterfall
Lost days are all I ever, ever know
So then learn to let this go

Throw a couple of my worries in the bag, brr
I can feel it every time I take a drag
It's a wonder why I never let my best

Just take side in that grass, oh
Here comes the past, oh
Here comes the questions I'll never ask

Humiliated laugh, oh
Yes, just, just laugh, oh
Funny, funny, ha (ha)
I don't give a fu-huh, what's u-up?

And it only takes a couple fake friends
A bit of boredom, maybe braid the loose ends, yeah
Laughin' up our memories and honeymoon lands
[?] this is how it begins, yeah

Well all it takes is a couple fake friends
Some shitty young men's friends you thought were diamonds, yeah
A couple memories where you could count on anything
And anyone, except for them

Da da da da da da da da, da da da da da da da da

It's a fuckin' shame that we fight
Take another mint for the night, maybe out the smoke from my eyes
There's a truck called, [?] know why?
We don't know how to cry sometimes, we don't know how to cry sometimes

Well, yeah, if my mind would ever, ever let me out to play
I would take off every running chance I take
I will make everyday
Or go to get away

Oh, here comes the past, oh
Here comes the questions I'll never ask
Humiliated laugh, oh
Yes, just, just laugh, oh
Funny, funny, ha (ha)
I don't give a fu-uck, shut u-up

And it only takes a couple fake friends
A bit of boredom, maybe braid the loose ends, yeah
Laughin' up our memories, and honeymoon lands
[?] this is how it begins, yeah

Well all it takes is a couple fake friends
Some shitty young men's friends you thought were diamonds, yeah
A couple memories where you could count on anything
And anyone, except for them

Everyday goes by
But I don't know why I forget sometimes
Everyday goes by
But I forget sometimes...
