

Poised With This Poison

Joel Faviere

Take away all the doubt and fear
I swear some day I'll get out of here
I swear I learned my lesson, I'll never forget
But every time I listen the louder it gets They tell me "pick a poison, its a trap, let them all in, ain't that bad"
This feeling in my brain, its driving me crazy
I don't think I am myself no more, go away go away go away
It takes the noise away
It helps numb the pain
My spine fell back against the couch
The stars started shakin'
It knocked me out
Hold me captive, hold me close
I'll take you in even though I'm not suppose to
On my knees for this ghost,
Take me by my crimson hands an make a toast to Take the noise away, it helps me numb the pain
