

Strong Enough

Joel Faviere

You don't even know what you want
You've been acting weird
I'm out of here
Yeah, yeah
I've worked too damn hard
For you to have a front
You better listen up

You don't think I'm strong enough
(You don't think I'm strong enough)
You better listen up
This is what's going down
You don't think I'm strong enough
You don't think I'm smart enough to get out
You better listen up
This is what's going down
You don't think I'm strong enough
You don't think I'm smart enough to get out
You don't think I'm strong enough to get out

We've been hanging low for too long
It's feeling weird now that you're out of here
And I worked too damn hard
For this to fall apart
Listen up

You don't think I'm strong enough
(You don't think I'm strong enough)
You better listen up
This is what's going down
You don't think I'm strong enough
You don't think I'm smart enough to get out
You better listen up
This is what's going down
You don't think I'm strong enough
You don't think I'm smart enough to get out
You don't think I'm smart enough to get out
(Smart enough to get out)
You don't think I'm strong enough to get out
