

World

Joel Faviere

Ahh, all of me's dead and gone, I don't know anymore
Ahh, I don't owe anyone, I guess I'll laugh it off
Hold up, I need a hand, break up and leave again
I believe anything breathin' and standin', fallin' apart is a habit I handle

Bleeding as bright as a candle, ah
But give me a spark and a lighter, in case it gets dark again
Oh, I already told you, I've been there, I've done that, I doctor it
Twistin' and turnin', bendin' and burnin', colder and hurtin'
But I'm lovin' the world, man

Crash it and burn it
Wait for your turn, man
Sky's turnin' blue when it's black, when it's burnin'
I don't wanna die like this, but I guess I could try like this

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm lovin' the world, man
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Not a thing am I learnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I guess I'm crashin' and burnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

So, just fuck an apology, better get off of me, ah
Little do you know the weight that's on top of me, ah
Well, keeps me above all this drama and watered monotony, ah
Zero to sixty with thoughtless monopoly, ah

Well, destiny's testin' me at the top of all my dreams
And talkin' all this shit could make it topple over me
And the baggage is garbage, the truth is the hardest, too plain to see, ah
Take it or leave it, everything or nothing type of idea

Crash it and burn it
Wait for your turn, man
Sky's turnin' blue when it's black, when it's burnin'
I don't wanna die like this, but I guess I could try like this

Crash it and burn it
Wait for your turn, man
Sky's turnin' blue when it's black, when it's burnin'
I don't wanna die like this, but I guess I could try like this

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm lovin' the world, man
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Not a thing am I learnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I guess I'm crashin' and burnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm lovin' the world, man
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Not a thing am I learnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I guess I'm crashin' and burnin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
