

Motel with No Phone

John Anderson

Lately we've been busy, always on the run and life's been such a fuss
I think the extra stress and worry is somehow finally getting t hrough to us
Our love has meant so much, I think that we should try to save it if we can
Before we get too far apart could we just try this one more pla n

Let's spend the weekend in a motel with no phone Together all alone and let the world go by Let's spend the weekend in a motel with no phone Won't even turn the TV on, just watch our love come back to lif e

When I stop to think it's been quite a while since I said I lov e you
But thinkin' back again there's been a lot of time since when I
've wanted you
There's something that we overlooked and somehow lost somewhere along the way
But I think I finally found, would you go away with me and coul d we leave today

Let's spend the weekend in a motel with no phone
Together all alone and let the world go by
Let's spend the weekend in a motel with no phone
Won't even turn the TV on, just watch our love come back to lif
e
Won't even turn the TV on, just watch our love come back to lif
e