

Goodbye Again

John Denver

C C/h Ami F C
1. It's five o'clock this morning, and the sun is on the rise,
C C/h Ami Ami/g F Dmi G7
There's frosting on the window pane, and sorrow in your eyes.
C C/h Ami F C
The stars are fading quietly, the night is nearly gone,
C/h Ami Ami/g F Dmi G7
And so you turn away from me and tears begin to come.

Dmi G7 C C/h Ami Ami/g
R: And it's goodbye again; I'm sorry to be leaving you,
Dmi G7 C C/h Ami
Goodbye again; cause if you didn't know,
Dmi7 G7 C C/h Ami Ami/g
it's goodbye again. And I wish you could tell me
F F/e Dmi G
Why do we always fight when I have to go?

2. It seems a shame to leave you now, the days are soft and warm.
I long to lay me down again, to hold you in my arms.
I long to kiss the tears away, give you back the smile,
But other voices beckon me, for a little while.

R: And it's goodbye again...

Emi F C C/h Ami
3. I have to go and see some friends of mine, some that I don't know
Dmi G7 CsusD C
and some who aren't familiar with my name.
Emi F C C/h Ami
It's something that's inside of me not hard to understand;
Dmi Dmi5#/7 Dmi7 G7
It's anyone who'll listen to me sing.

C C/h Ami Ami/gF G
4. And if your hours are empty now who am I to blame?
C C/h Ami Ami/g F F/e G7
You think if I were always here our love would be the same?
C C/h Ami F C
As it is, the time we have is worth the time alone,
C C/h Ami Ami/g F F/e Dmi
And lying by your side the greatest peace I've ever known.

R: And it's goodbye again...