Song Of Wyoming

John Denver

I'm weary and tired, I've done my day's riding, nighttime is ro lling my way. The sky's all on fire and light's slowly fading, peaceful and s till ends the day. Out on the trail, night birds are calling, singing their wild m elody. Down in the canyon, cottonwood whispers a song of Wyoming for m e. Well I've wandered around the town and the city, tried to figur e the how and the why. I stopped all my scheming, I'm just drifting and dreaming, watc hing the river roll by. Here comes that big old prairie moon rising, shining down brigh t as can be. Up on the hill there's a coyote singing a song of Wyoming for m e. Now it's whiskey and tobacco and bitter black coffee, a lonesom e old dogie am I. But waking up on the range, Lord, I feel like an angel, Feel li ke I almost could fly.

Drift like a cloud out over the badlands, sing like a bird in t he tree.

The wind in the sage sounds like heaven singing a song of Wyomi ng for me.

A song of Wyoming for me.
