

I Won't Leave You Anymore

John P. Kee

with an attitude, I turned my back on you told someone that I would not return remembering that day, I vowed to stay away but your tender voice I did hear say, "oh, John, I love you and I know you love me, too. but to me your heart must be true."

I won't leave you anymore; there's no exit there's no
door
that can attract me or make me turn my back to thee
I won't leave you anymore (2x) not wanting to obey, your word I did stray wanting to do all things my very own way there I was so sad, no friends I felt I had To hear my cry, to hear my plea and then you said, "here am I, your tears I'll dry.

I don't want to see you crying, I will forgive you, Don't you know you're mine?"

I won't leave you anymore; there's no exit there's no
door
that can attract me or make me turn my back to thee
I won't leave you anymore (2x)

thank you for your grace, an opportunity to share another chance you said if I draw nigh to you, you will draw nigh to me, now I want the whole world to see

I won't leave you anymore; there's no exit there's no
door
that can attract me or make me turn my back to thee
I won't leave you anymore (2x)

I won't leave you anymore
