

Never Let Me Fall

John P. Kee

Listen to this
I heard just once, that darkness says, what's my plan?
My faith is strengthened, I have endured
But there are times, I tell the truth I wasn't sure
You heard my cry
I could have given up
But you did not let me fall
You're more to me than just a King, my lifeline
When am sinking deep, you reached down and grab my hand
I resumed my subverted plan
You heard my cry
I could have given up
But you did not let me fall

The stance of a good man, my love will not fade
Am holding by your hands
Whenever I fall, He upholdeth me
With his right hand
I could have given up
But you did not let me fall

Can't give up x2
I've come too far
Can't give up, you never given up on me
Can't give up, and friends they leave
Can't give up, you never gave up on me
Can't give up, quit aside
Can't give up, am so grateful that you kept my live
Can't give up, you never gave up on me
Can't give up, in spite of my tears
Can't give up, whatever I need
Can't give up, all I have to do is
Can't give up, when I go through my struggles
Can't give up, I can always rely on you
Can't give up, I come too far
Can't give up, you're my sustainer
Can't give up, that's who you are
I could have given up
I could have walked away
I could have given up
I was a castaway but you reconciled me
I could have given up
When I was crushed, heavy hearted and broken
I could have given up
You reminded me of your goodness
I could have given up
You don't know what I have been through lately
But you did not let me fall
You preserve me, you kept me
You kept me, you kept me
You didn't let me fall
