

Unchained

Johnny Cash

I have been ungrateful I've been unwise Restless from the cradle Now I realize It's so hard to see the rainbow Through glasses dark as these Maybe I'll be able From now on, on my knees

Oh, o-o-oh I am weak Oh, I know I am vain Take this weight from me Let my spirit be Unchained

Old man swearin' at the sidewalk I'm overcome Seems that we've both forgotten Forgotten to go home

Oh, have I seen an angel Or have I seen a ghost Where's that rock of ages When I need it most

Oh, o-o-oh I am weak Oh, I know I am vain Take this weight from me Let my spirit be Unchained...
