

Still Winning

Johnny Gill

I been leading it all, I seen him fall
Whenever to bounceback and let him fall
What would people say, try not to lead it fad
I just need god to handle it and let them hate
Cause I'm will be alright, say I will be alright
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Keep on pushing like I did before, never gonna stop gotta get some more
Can't going to win what you playing for, can't know to win what you playing for
I ain't got time for people sweating me, trying to live my live be you won't let me be
Sitting there fusing you still waiting on me
Can't deny this I'm still shining

Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living
Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living

Living right, living right
Living right, living right
Living right, living right
And I'm still on top
Still winning

Friends I thought I had, only had a few
Fun and liking a fan know I talking to Smile in my face, like everything is cool
That's a lesson to learned what I had to do
You see cause I'm alright, look at me I'm alright

Keep on pushing like I did before, never gonna stop gotta get some more
Can't going to win what you playing for, can't know to win what you playing
for
I ain't got time for people sweating me, trying to live my live be you won't
let me be
Sitting there fusing you still waiting on me
Can't deny this I'm still shining

Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living
Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living

Living right, living right
Living right, living right
Living right, living right
And I'm still on top
Still winning
Still winning

Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living
Still winning, still winning
Living life on the back, still living

Living right, living right
Living right, living right
Living right, living right
And I'm still on top
Still winning

If you got some haters out there yah, you know what I'm talking about
(Still winning, still winning)
I want you hands up in the air, and this is what the haters say
(Still winning, still winning)
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah...
(Still winning, still winning)
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah, nah...
(Still winning, still winning)
Wo, come on, come on hey
(Still winning, still winning)
No matter what you see yeah, yeah
(Still winning, still winning)
