

Edibles

Jojo

Never leave this bed alone like eclipse
Don't know what that means but I sure feel it
Everything has been heightened by your service
And I deserve it
I bring all the realness to the surface
Does a woman like that make you nervous?
I'll take you to church and watch you worship
Watch you work it

One by one we'll be switching it up
Like it's everlast
Cause when on two, when the skies turning blue
When we finally crash

No, I don't care where we're standing
I don't want one night stands
Oh, full time lovers
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"
If you wanna come eat edibles
Do some freaky shit incredible
I'm your girl, I'm your girl
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"

Damn, you've got my foot prints on the ceiling
On the mirror, on the headboard, in the bathroom
On the marble floor
Just somebody cookie got you leaning
Got you feening

One by one we'll be switching it up
Like it's everlast
Cause when on two, when the skies turning blue
When we finally crash

No, I don't care where we're standing
I don't want one night stands
Oh, full time lovers
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"
If you wanna come eat edibles
Do some freaky shit incredible
I'm your girl, I'm your girl
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"

Green candies melting us together
I feel higher up the fieldway park
Is it your fingers giving tingles or this
Hide your body [?]
Baby, meet me in the dark
I need you here 10 p.m sharp

Yeah, yeah

No, I don't care where we're standing
I don't want one night stands
Oh, full time lovers
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"
If you wanna come eat edibles
Do some freaky shit incredible
I'm your girl, I'm your girl
Listen, I got enough feelings in me
Tell me "no matter what happens
We're full time lovers"

Now that you know, baby
