

Crossing the Ocean

Jonny Craig

No matter how hard you try
You can't escape
No matter how hard I try
The words they can't escape

Voice and mind, body and soul
Give them all to me
Voice and mind, body and soul
Give them all to me
And watch it all come down

It is the eyes I fear
Penetrating all my worth
God it's your eyes I fear
Giving me whole lies
Whole lies
Whole lies

Pain is reaching out to me
Blink once and now for that I'll pray

If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to see that face
If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to find my place
If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to see your face
If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to find my place

You fill my appetite
Each and every lonely night
You fill my appetite
Each and every lonely night

I see your face
Before the end move down
I see your face
Before the end move down
Move down

Strange as it seems
The voices they mean
So much more to me
Strange as it seems
The voices they mean
So much more to me

They mean so much more to me
How can I throw you away?

If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to see that face
If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to find my place
Just to see your face

If I had to cross the ocean floor
Just to find my place

If we both feel the same, feel the same
Don't let it get in the way
If we both feel the same, feel the same
Let it get in the way

Across the ocean floor
Just to find out my place
Just to see that pretty face
