

Die Young

Jorn

[Verse 1]

Yell with the wind, though the wind won't help you fly at all
Your back's to the wall
Then chain the sun, and it tears away and it breaks you as you run
You run, you run!

[Verse 2]

Behind the smile, there's danger and a promise to be told:
You'll never get old
Life's fantasy, to be locked away and still to think you're free
You're free, we're free!

[Chorus]

So live for today
Tomorrow never comes
Die young

[Chorus]

Die young, die young
Can't you see the writing on the wall?

Die young, gonna die young
Someone stopped the pain

[Verse 3]

Go to the wind, though the wind won't help you fly at all
Your back's to the wall
Then chase the sun, and it tears away and it breaks you as you
run,
You run, you run!

[Pre-Chorus]

So live for today
Tomorrow never comes

[Chorus]

Die young, young!
Die young, die young!
Die young, die young, young!
Die young, die young, die young, die young, die young!
