

Only You

Joseph Vincent

All I wanna do is wake up to your face
Layin' low, complicated days erase
And now wouldn't trade anything
Found my pot of gold, man, I feel so lucky, and I

Wanna let you know you take away the pain
When my mind is driving me insane
And you never hesitate to Ooo you always

Give me all the love you have
It's all I ever needed
I gotta keep it simple, yeah it's you

Only you
Please just take my heart and keep it
It's no longer a dream because it's true
Only you
Will ever see behind the curtain
With you I'm always certain
Can't be lonely
With my one and only
Yeah it's only you

Never thought that I could love someone like this Seein' you I can't help but reminisce
In my mind everything fades away
Time is all we have, gotta live each second, and I

Wanna tell you that you always
Lift the weight off of my shoulders
Taking on the world together
As long as you just

Give me all the love you have
It's all I ever needed
I gotta keep it simple, yeah it's you

Only you
Please just take my heart and keep it
It's no longer a dream because it's true
Only you
Will ever see behind the curtain
With you I'm always certain
Can't be lonely
With my one and only
Yeah it's only you
