

Lemme Show You

JRDN

Got dressed up for the club just hoping that you would be there
Seen about a thousand pretty ladies but none of these girls compare
The way you look, the way you dress up, ooh that ain't fair
Got me walkin' behind ya, oh baby, I can't help but stare

'Cause oh you're so beautiful
Know you heard this before
I bet everywhere that you go
They be linin' up just to say to you

I ain't worried 'bout your man tonight, no
I'm just tryna change your plans tonight, oh yeah
Come over here and take my hand tonight, oh
I know you wanna take that chance tonight
Come over here and take that chance tonight
Oh baby, lemme show you
(Baby, lemme show you)
(Baby, lemme show you)

When you was getting dressed up, bet you was hoping that I would be h ere
And I heard you got a man but you know that boy don't compare
I usually wouldn't interfere but tonight baby I don't care
'Cause you so damn hot, I figure you're worth a shot

'Cause oh you're so beautiful
Know you heard this before
I bet everywhere that you go
They be linin' up just to say to you

I ain't worried 'bout your man tonight, no
I'm just tryna change your plans tonight, oh yeah
Come over here and take my hand tonight, oh
I know you wanna take that chance tonight
Come over here and take that chance tonight
Oh baby, lemme show you
(Baby, lemme show you)
(Baby, lemme show you)

What it's like to roll
Baby lemme show you
What if you [?] me
Baby lemme show you
How it feels when you're flyin' around the world
Baby lemme show you
How you'd feel if you were my girl
Baby lemme show you
