Ready For Salvation

Kalmah

Desperate cry of a child Who only wants to live An innocent human being Deprived of all his dreams

Painful faces of the others Who once were the chosen Innocent eyes of the child Never going to see

The voice of crystal children
Of deaf ears it has fallen
And the preacher delivers a sermon
But who's ready for salvation

Remembrance behind the scene
Of unjustice and injustice
In the forsaken faces
Expression of frustration

The voice of crystal children
Of deaf ears it has fallen
And the preacher delivers a sermon
But who's ready for salvation