Once Upon A Time

I am scorn in this heavenly scheme With a stench of destruction I'm a reaper of beautiful dreams And she knows I'm on the edge Sacrilege Push me over Tell me once upon a time I close my eyes And see myself reborn Righting the wrong I won't stay to stand in line Or wait for God to shine all over me I wait for the storm I am you And know that you heard You and I are the last At the end of the world Then we talk And we run And we hide Then so what The human race Suffocates Leave me breathless Tell me once upon a time I close my eyes And see myself reborn Righting the wrong I won't stay to stand in line Or wait for God to shine all over me I wait for the storm Move along Through the ashes of a dream Move along And see myself anew again Tell me once upon a time I close my eyes And see myself reborn Righting the wrong I won't stay to stand in line Or wait for God to shine all over me I wait for the storm
