

I know shouldn't show my face tonight
I gotta give you time just to say goodbye
To let go, let it go
You're dancing with her but we're eye to eye
Why can't I be on the other side
But I know, my day will come
So can you tell me why
If the fuse is lit
And the sparks are lighted
Why you wanna make home of me

What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
Like dynamite

It's all the distract
Really how you feel
Am I just another heart you can steal
If a soul is not enough
So can you tell me why
If the fuse is lit
And the sparks are lighted
Why you wanna make home of me

What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
Like dynamite

I'm alone, as like you
For all this time
If I'm no good
Why am I falling anymore
I'm not gonna be a fool no more

What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
What's it gonna take, take, take
I don't wanna wait, wait, wait
Just explode into my life like dynamite
Like dynamite
