

Ain't No Little Girl

Kasey Chambers

Just like a child
You've made up your mind
You make it look easy
To leave me behind
You're crossing a bridge
And you're crossing a line
You hold out your heart
Your hand
And change the plan
And call yourself a man

But I ain't no little girl
No I ain't no little girl
I won't cry, I won't beg
I won't plead, I won't pray
I won't ask you to stay

Just walk on by
And leave it alone
You won't take me down easy
But I ain't made of stone
Well a lesson is learned
And a lesson is lost
Well I ain't afraid to stand
And give a damn
And take it like a man

But I ain't no little girl
No I ain't no little girl
I won't cry, I won't beg
I won't plead, I won't pray
I won't ask you to stay

No I ain't no little girl
No I ain't no little girl
I won't break, I won't bend
I won't wait, I won't end up
With nothing to say

No I ain't no little girl
No I ain't no little girl
I won't break, I won't bend
I won't wait, I won't end up
With nothing to say
I won't break, I won't bend
I won't wait, I won't end up
With nothing to say
