

Sunshine in My Sky

Kate Voegele

I want a violet bicycle, flip flops and sand between my toes
These are the beautiful things in life
So give me that off the shoulder dress
The one that the boys will not forget
Well, I want just a little bit more from life

Maybe I should pack my bags and fly to Costa Rica
Put a flower in my hair, a dancing senorita

Oh put a little sunshine in my sky
Oh what a lovely day to be alive
These eyes are longing to see a sign of summer
To leave my cares in the breeze
Oh put a little sunshine in my sky

So let's go skinny dip tonight
Under the cotton candy skies
Would you if I asked you?
A campfire and a backyard ballgame
Fireflies and electric lemonade
And I can't keep my eyes off you

We could pack our bags and fly to Costa Rica
You could swing me low and call me Rosalita, yeah yeah

Oh put a little sunshine in my sky
Oh what a lovely day to be alive
These eyes are longing to see a sign of summer
To leave my cares in the breeze
Oh put a little sunshine in my sky

Now wouldn't it be nice to know we Could make a great escape to paradise
'Cause me I'm cold as ice
If you could wrap the sun around me
And lay me down safe and soundly
I would die

Oh put a little sunshine in my sky
Oh what a lovely day to be alive
These eyes are longing to see a sign of summer
Leave my cares in the breeze
Oh put a little sunshine in my sky, oh oh oh
Put a little sunshine in my sky
