

I Want To Belong To You

Katie Herzig

Have I ever seen such kindness
Such resigned delight all in one glance
Right when you pass me
I watch, you see
You smile, I breathe
Air in my chest
I'm trying my best

The sun left me so quickly
I am stuck under the moon
I want to belong to you

I pray no one will find you
I'll stay right where I am
'Til you come back
Don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin

Suddenly light on my feet
With a sweet rearrange of the day
Everything's changed now

One quick exchange
It's not the same
Kind of goodbye
Gone with a sigh

The sun left me so quickly
I am stuck under the moon
I want to belong to you

I pray no one will find you
I'll stay right where I am
'Til you come back
Don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin

I wanna belong to you

I pray no one will find you
I'll stay right where I am
'Til you come back
Don't let me lose you
Before there's a chance to begin
