

The Waking Sleep

Katie Herzig

For my soul to reach you
Must I always bleed
For my heart to feel you
Must it always beat

Even the waking sleep

I know time's a wasting
It is chasing me
While the ice is melting
Into the sea

Even the waking sleep

I know there is a purpose
I know there is an end
I know you are worth it
Will I rise again

There's a bridge that's burning
And the water's near
I see you hurtin'
And I watch in fear
Will I watch you burning
You I love so dear

Even the waking sleep
Even the waking sleep
