

Some Small Way

Katrina Carlson

Somehow, someday, somewhere, someway
Sorry won't be hard to say
Sometime, someplace, some stroke of grace
Will stop the rain, the ash and gray and someday

(Chorus)

Somehow things will change
Someway I'll find the strength
To love again and let you in to stay
In some small way

Some win, some lose, some take, some choose
To leave some good behind
Some have nothing, I had something
Everything when you were mine and someday

(Chorus)

In some small way
You know I blame myself for letting it go this far
In some small way
I want you to pay for being less than you are
I want to say goodbye
Don't even want to try
But then someway I find
Some small faith that someday

Somehow things will change
Someway I'll find the strength
To hold on to the hope of better days
Somehow, someway, somewhere, someway
In some small way
In some small way
