

I'm Not Leaving

Keane

Hey big shoes, once I was young like you
I loved like you, opened my heart like you
Well, don't be scared just 'cos you've been stripped bare
You feel things that most people never do

Hold my hand just like you used to do
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving
Throw it up, baby, you're all mixed up
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving

On days like this, you wonder what true love is Does it even exist? The kiss, the prince, the story for the kids
That same big heart that right now is hurting so hard
Is the ladder you'll climb when you touch the stars

Hold my hand just like you used to do
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving
Throw it up, baby, you're all mixed up
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving

Show me that dreamer I love
Let me see the fire in your eyes
Let the moment pass, sleep a while here in my arms 'cos I'm not leaving

Hold my hand just like you used to do
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving
Throw it up, baby, you're all mixed up
I'm not leaving, I'm not leaving
