We are like windows Stained with colors of the rainbow Set in a darkened room Till the bridegroom comes to shining through Then the colors fall around our feet Over those we meet Covering all the gray that we see Rainbow colors of assorted hues Come exchange your blues For His love that you see shining through me We are His daughters and sons We are the colorful ones We are the kids of the King Rejoice in everything My colors grow so dim When I start to fall away from Him But up comes the strongest wind That He sends to blow me back into his arms again And then the colors fall around my feet Over those I meet Changing all the gray that I see Rainbow colors of the Risen Son Reflect the One The One who came to set us all free We are His daughters and sons We are the colorful ones We are the kids of the King Rejoice in everything We are like windows Stained with colors of the rainbow No longer set in a darkened room 'Cause the bridegroom wants to shine from you No longer set in a darkened room 'Cause the bridegroom wants to shine from you
