

New Rules

Kele

I used to want to bed the world
But now I just get by Shoot an arrow to the sun
Or as far as it can go
It's alright
I'm learning to be laid back
about things
I'm learning to be laid back
about certain things
about certain things

I used to want to rule the world
But now I just get by
Shoot an arrow to the sun
Or as far as it will go
It's alright
There's nothing to prove anymore
Nothing to lose
I burned away all my desire
The hunger's gone but it's
It's alright
I'm learning to be laid back
about things
I'm learning to be laid back
about certain things
about certain things
