

Let Your Tears Fall

Kelly Clarkson

Watch your tear fall, let them fall, fall and I'll
Make the seas calm, take you in my arms, you cry
Let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
It's not a crime to fall apart sometimes
It's not a crime to ask why to ask why, you cry
Let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your tears fall

I will come, no I won't run
I'm not scared to care
Come to me when you're in need
Set it free, let the truth breathe

Tell me all your secrets
Tell me your fears
I won't push you away
I'll only pull you near
No, I won't judge you
I'mma help you through
Tell me all your secrets
Share in your pain
Confess it all to me
No matter, tell me your name
No, I won't judge you
I'mma help you through
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
No I won't judge you
And I'll help you through

So give it all, give it all to me
And you can call whenever you need me, you'll cry
Just let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your tears fall

I will come, no I won't run
I'm not scared to care
Come to me when you're in need
Set it free, let the truth breathe

Tell me all your secrets
Tell me your fears
I won't push you away
I'll only pull you near
No, I won't judge you
I'mma help you through
Tell me all your secrets
Share in your pain
Confess it all to me
No matter, tell me your name
No, I won't judge you

I'mma help you through
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
No I wont judge you
And I'll help you through
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
No I wont judge you
And I'll help you through

I know you been on your knees
I'll run to your side baby
I run to your side baby, oh
I know you've been on your knees
I'll run to your side baby

Tell me all your secrets
Tell me your fears
No, I won't judge you
I'mma help you through
Tell me all your secrets
Share in your pain
Confess it all to me
No matter, tell me your name
No, I won't judge you
I'mma help you through
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall
Let your tears fall
Let your, let your tears fall

Let your tears fall
