

Whole Lotta Woman

Kelly Clarkson

What you say?

(Girl, this my bad)

You ain't know? Texas women do it bigger

(What? Say it ain't so)

In the south, it get's no realer, baby

Pot full of grits, I'm hotter than your mama's supper, boy

Better get with it

Better watch your mouth, I might burn you, boy

You goin', uh, downtown, gonna work

Good love like dessert

If you scared, go to church

Whoo-whoo, I'm a lover

Hold on tight, little country boy

I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with voice

All I'm needin' is a baby to love me

Like a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning

I got what you want, I'm aiming to please

I got what it takes, I sure got the means

I got what you want

Sugar, honey, iced tea

All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the way I walk and toss my hips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(Anything I see, I want, I get)

I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence, yeah

One time for the green

And rollin' like Tina

Lovin' hard ain't easy

Whoo-whoo, if you mean it

Hold on tight, little country boy

I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with orders

All I'm needin' is a baby to love me

I'm a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning

I got what you want, I'm aiming to please

I got what it takes, I sure got the means

I got what you want

Sugar, honey, iced tea

All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the way I walk and toss my hips)

I said, I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(Anything I see, I want, I get)

I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence

Ain't no competition, babe

It's just can you keep up with me?

I can't do a thing about my wicked ways with gravity
Higher than the leaves, they fall from trees like D-O-double-Gs
I reside in Tennessee, but Texas still grows deep in me

I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the way I walk and toss my hips)
Hey, I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)
I said, I'm a whole lotta woman
(Anything I see I want, I get)
I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence, (whoo!)

Come on!
Wait, do it again
