Call Me Up (The Phone Is In The Cradle)

Kenny Rogers

My friends they donâddt talk much âddbout the legend My friends they donâddt talk much anyway When they do, I know I better listen, âddcos my good friends just naturally know The right things to say, they say:

Call me up the phone is in the cradle, Get yourself a liver to my door, But if you saw any plan and if you got the time, We could talk the night away.

I donâddt got so lonely and Iâddve gotta
He said: itâdds tough to be the only man alive,
He said: Iâdd give a river for just somebody to talk to
Weâddre thinking in lighting out for biting,
We came strolling by, she said:

Call me up the phone ...

Now Rosy was a queen of the all night cowboy, She said: Texas boy using kind of shy Donâ□□t you expect the nimbleâ□□s invitation, Just knock on the wall Track down the hall and drop on by, she said:

Call me up ...
