

Breaking Up Somebody's Home

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

Laying round home alone
On a rainy night like this
Starving for your love
Hungry for just one kiss

Heavy rains up ahead
On my window pane
Beats so loud and clear
Words just spelled your name

I got nowhere to turn to
Tired of being alone
I feel like breaking up somebody's home

I know it's useless
Hanging on when you belong to someone else
Can't fight the feeling
Oh after all I didn't make myself

Last night I cried so hard
I believe I caught a chill
Can't control the vibrations
Oh my heart just won't stand still

Got nowhere to turn
Tired of being alone
Feel like breaking up somebody's home

I know it's useless
Hanging on when you belong to someone else
Can't fight the feeling
Oh after all I didn't make myself

I got nowhere to turn to
Tired of being alone
Feel like breaking up somebody's home

I got nowhere to turn to
Tired of being alone
Feel like breaking up somebody's home

Here I come, baby...

Like breaking up somebody's home...
