

Crazy.

Kiana Ledé

I think my skin's a little tough
I'm a little rough around the edges
I got this feelin in my gut
You gon' have to call a medic

Cause I'm a little crazy
I'm a little crazy
You done push me to a point that got me looking crazy
I done had my share of fuck boys they be talking crazy
Yeah you don't really know what's crazy
'Til you see my side of

Crazy
You don't really know what's crazy 'til you see my kind of crazy
Yeah you don't really know what's crazy
'Til you see my side of crazy

I might slash the tires in your car
Already got the windows
I ain't say I'm sorry
How the fuck you get me to this point
Know that shit's expensive but I don't care what it cost me

But you even movin shady
You been movin shady
And I don't even know
Who you been fucking lately
Since you gon' call me crazy
Imma show you crazy
You don't know bout crazy 'til you see my side of

Crazy
You don't really know what's crazy 'til you see my kind of crazy
Yeah you don't really know what's crazy
'Til you see my side of crazy

Fucked up
And she show up
But you made decisions
Had go with it
Imma make friends
So we can talk about it
And there won't be nothing you can do about it

I'm all outta fucks all outta patience lately
And imma put you all up in your feelings baby
Since you gon' call me crazy imma show you crazy
You don't even know what's crazy 'til you seen my side of

Crazy
You don't really know what's crazy 'til you see my kind of crazy
