

Blood Bell

Kill the Romance

The windows crack
Then the earth floor trembles
So it has become The wait is silent so we could hear the screaming

Where is the flame
We can feel the burning Let the vultures come Come enter now into your coming domain

Your coming domain...

Here we are, here with fear
When the blood bell begins to chime
Here we stand
We shall not flee
When these angels
with hell arrive

Oh so alive We've melted our frost with our flaming souls
The time is up we will make our move

Standing tall yet we hear our screaming
We know the game
We know the price and what's coming if we fail

Time stands still...

Here we are, here with fear
When the blood bell
begins to chime
Here we stand
We shall not flee
When these angels
with hell arrive

Here we are the time is near
When the blood bell
begins to chime
Yet we stand not down
nor shall we go
Let the angels with death arrive

Where do we go Where do we flee
on the verge of our doom

Where should we run Can't we just stay

Are we here only to yield to the angels of revenge
