

Too Far Gone

Kim Carnes

Wasn't all that long ago
You could've changed my mind
But that was then, way back when I was your girl
Before I left that world behind

Now I'm too far gone
I can't hear a word you're sayin'
Too far gone
I don't know what game you're playin'
But I'm too far gone

There's no reason you should call
What's left to talk about?
Don't waste your breath, there's nothing left
I cried enough, Lord knows, to put that fire out

Now I'm too far gone
I can't hear a word you're sayin'
Too far gone
I don't know what game you're playin'
But I'm too far gone

Now I'm too far gone
I can't hear a word you're sayin'
Too far gone
I don't know what game you're playin'
But I'm too far gone

And I'm never coming back
No, I'm never coming back
I've gone this far
And I'm never coming back
