

Relentless Pursuit

Kim Walker-Smith

You can have all of me
You can have every part of me

And I, I am released to run after you, oh
And I, I am released to run after you

It's a relentless pursuit, relentless pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you
It's a relentless pursuit, a passion in pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you

I won't hold anything from you
Every part of me I've surrendered to you

And I am not afraid to run after you, oh
To run with all my strength, run into you

It's a relentless pursuit, relentless pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you
It's a relentless pursuit, a passion in pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you the love of my life

Oh you the love of my life
Oh it's you, you, you, you, you
Of my life

I can't take my eyes off of you
I can't take my mind off of you
I'm hopelessly crazy in love for you, you, you, you
You've taken the keys and you've opened up all of me
And now I'm running, I'm running after you
The love of my life
Oh you the love of my life

It's a relentless pursuit, relentless pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you
It's a relentless pursuit, a passion in pursuit
I will not stop chasing after you
