

You'll Always Be

Kim Walker-Smith

You've held me close on dark nights
You've calmed me down when nothing could
For every time I felt alone
You pulled me in and called me friend

You've always been, and You'll always be
The God who gives, such perfect peace
So, all my fear, and anxiety
Will bow to my God
The King of Kings, oh, my Prince of Peace

I've basked inside Your perfect light
And I've cried until the healing came
I've run away and back to You
And still You call me friend

You've always been, and You'll always be
The God who gives, such perfect peace
So, all my fear, and anxiety
Will bow to my God
The King of Kings, oh, my Prince of Peace

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name

You've always been, and You'll always be
The God who gives, such perfect peace
So, all my fear, and anxiety
Can bow to my God
The King of Kings, oh, my Prince of Peace, yes

Yes
Fear and anxiety bow
Depression bow
Hope is restored
Sickness bow
At the name, at the name
At the name of Jesus, hey

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
( 'Cause everything gives way, when I speak Your name)
Yes, oh-oh-oh
