

Try Again

Kim Wilde

I can't see your face
Hear the excuses for
The mistakes that you make
I've heard all your lies
I don't know how much I can take
Before I break
I've tried to be so strong
While you broke the promises
All the vows that we made
We know something's wrong
But we carry on anyway
Day by day
You're the one who let me down
And now I find it hard to forgive
In my heart

But I'll try again
To forget all the pain
And love you again
I'll try again
Though you hurt me I know
I can't let you go

How can we forget
The sweetness of yesterday
We just can't let it go
Lost in bitterness
I'm losing my self control
And my soul
Cos you'll be the one who let me down
And now I find it hard to forgive
In my mind

But I'll try again
To forget all the pain
And love you again
I'll try again
Though you hurt me I know
I can't let you go

Oh why, why do we hurt each other more
When there's a way
Cos we never really found
What we were looking for
Can we try again

Cos You're the one who let me down
And now I find it hard to forgive
In my heart

But I'll try again
To forget all the pain
And love you again
I'll try again
Though you hurt me I know
I can't let you go

Ooh, I'll try again
