

My Religion

Kissin' Dynamite

I got a sign from the god of rock 'n' roll
I hear his voice when I'm caught down in a hole
My blood is screaming.
it's drumming through my veins
Only my amp could break all the fuckin' chains
Shut down your church - Now it's judgement day
Shut down your church - Let the guitar pray

My religion is rock and roll
My religion will save my soul
My religion is rock and roll
My religion will save my soul

I feel the kiss from the queen of rock 'n' roll
Run to the moon and back, out of control
My blood is boiling, it's blasting in my veins
Inside my head I feel diving aeroplanes
Shut down your church - Now it's judgement day
Shut down your church - Let the guitar pray

My religion is rock and roll
My religion will save my soul
My religion is rock and roll
My religion will save my soul
