So in love with you

Now you were after me for so long
But I would walk by ignore you and roll on
Had all I needed just thinking I'm so strong
Just believing that nothing could go wrong
But never seeing just really what goes on You'd start speaking I was like hold on
I'm just fiendinglike I could do no wrong
All that time i'm out cheating just all along
But looking back I was treating ya so wrong
I admit that it's seeming I chose wrong
But i've been meaning to change now for so long
And this is the reason I wrote just the whole song

You are all I ever need You are my everything You are my only thing And the reason why I sing

And I started looking at you in a whole different way And its kind of strange but really i'm amazed How you caught my eye and ya called my name I'm the type of guy who thought he had it made But I can't lie ain't nothing been the same Since the time I changed and ya came my way Reaaranged my whole space in such major ways And to think i used to just take ya name in vain But I'm so in love with you that I just won't contain The way I feel I just can't explain And this is the only way I can sum up what I'm saying

Now we been together for a while now

And every day you find a way to make me smile now

So all I gotta say just every time now

I don't ever want to stray just any time now

I just want to know all your ways just every time now

And just for all my days I want to find out

That your love and your grace well it's all mine now

And this is all I can say in every rhyme now is that...

I can't get enough So in love with you This is what I want to do Is be so in love with you
