

Respekt

KMFDM

I don't know you
You don't know me
Nothing is true
Nothing is real

A binding agreement
Man against man
They will strap our wrists as tight as they can
No need to get hurt just say these words:

I respekt you

I will punch your head until you: I respekt you

Bound to each other
Living the concept
I want to hear you state your respekt
It's not about money
It's not about hate
Shout it out loud before it's too late

I respekt you!
