The sun is rising, rising now
I see you rising too

Everybody's waking
They're on their way
All because you're waking
A new Hawaiian day

Good morning Hawaii
You have been sleeping for too long
Good morning Hawaii
You are the empress of my heart
Why don't you Wake up wake up*2

You.yeah you see opening your eyes
Colour in the sky... so nice and when you enter to the room
Everything begins to bloom

Your mountains keep me smiling.Oooh
Your oceans keep me cool.yea
People come and see these islands
To catch a glimpse of you

The moment you start rising
Everything begins to breathe
Here's a message to our island
We love you Hawaii
We love you can you see...
