

Another Daydream

Kongos

I said see you real soon
Dreaming through the afternoon
Oh I said goodbye
(but) there was no reply

Ten thousand voices dance around
I laugh and listen to the sound
Soon this will be
My reality
But I stand here again
And I see I'm alone
Nothing's changed
Ten thousand people disappeared tonight
Another daydream with no end in sight
Now I'm a million miles away
Thinking of what I'm trying to say
But nobody knows
And nobody cares
So I stand here again
And I see I'm alone
Nothing's changed
Ten thousand people disappeared tonight...
